

Government of Western Australia
Corruption and Crime Commission

MEDIA ALERT

Public examinations into the Shire of Exmouth

7 November 2016

Due to the unforeseen circumstances of a key member of the Corruption and Crime Commission's investigation team, the public examinations into the Shire of Exmouth which was scheduled to commence tomorrow (Tuesday 8 November 2016) has been adjourned until Thursday 10 November 2016.

A media briefing will be available to interested journalists at 9.15 am, at 186 St Georges Terrace, Perth.

The public examinations are part of the CCC's ongoing investigation into allegations of serious misconduct by certain officers at the Shire. Part of the CCC's investigation centres around a major contract for a key element of the Ningaloo Centre, a significant $30 million-plus infrastructure project currently under development.

Journalists and members of the public will have access to the examinations via a live stream available on the Commission's website at www.ccc.wa.gov.au/operation-sara.

Media briefing:

Thursday 10 November 2016

9:15 am

Corruption and Crime Commission

186 St Georges Terrace, Perth.

Public examinations:

Thursday 10 to Tuesday 15 November 2016 (examinations will be adjourned over the weekend)

Approximately 10:00 am to 4:00 pm

Corruption and Crime Commission

186 St Georges Terrace, Perth.

ENDS

Media contact

Louisa Mitchell: (08) 9421 3600 or 0434 308 208

Marie Mills: (08) 9421 3600 or 0418 918 202.