CCC report reveals abuse of trust at Horizon Power

The Corruption and Crime Commission (CCC) has today tabled in State Parliament its Report on Corruption in Information Technology at Horizon Power.

The report follows a series of public and private hearings conducted earlier this year and a lengthy investigation involving the use of the Commission's wide-ranging investigative powers. As part of this inquiry, the Commission entered into a cooperative investigation with WA Police who have worked alongside the Commission.

The Commission warns that the conduct detailed in the report is not confined to this single incident or work place, but may be widespread throughout the community.

The Commission does not intend to make further comment in relation to this report at this time.
